APC rate position for plan year 2023

The 2023 Marketplace Open Enrollment Period has finally arrived. Ascension Personalized Care (APC) and US Health and Life Insurance Company (USHL) are offering individual Marketplace health plans in Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, Tennessee, and Texas beginning Jan. 1, 2023.

APC rate comparisons are now available for PY23 by market and metal level. Click below to see the actuarial overview by county in each market where APC offers the lowest rates.

Welcome to the APC network

In the Indianapolis and national markets, we have recruited six new ancillary groups. In the Detroit, Indianapolis, Kansas, and national markets, we welcome 26 new provider groups to the APC network.

APC is continuously working to improve our network. Please click the links below to see what changes have been made.

Please allow 30-60 days for their information to appear in our online doctor directory.

APC navigators need your help

We are in need of Ascension Personalized Care appointed agents to help staff Agent of the Day (AOD) tables at various facilities and doctor offices. You will be speaking with potential clients about Ascension Personalized Care.

Our Navigators in each of the APC markets will have everything needed to set up a table including tables, table coverings, flyers, banners, and giveaway items.

Ascension

Ascension Personalized Care

Ascension is the parent company of Automated Benefit Services, Inc. (ABS) and US Health and Life Insurance Company (USHL).

ABS processes the claims for the Ascension Personalized Care plans, while USHL is the carrier of the APC product.

When searching for our plans on healthcare.gov you will see the Ascension Personalized Care product name.
